

OVER THE RIVER.

CAMDEN COURTS.—Yesterday, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, before Judges Pascoar, Tatem and Horner, Sylvester F. Wilson was arraigned for trial on the charge of forging rail road passes and tickets. The prosecution demanded a struck jury, and the case was laid over until to-morrow. John Owens was then put on trial on a charge of arson in setting fire to his own store on Spruce street, near Taird, in August last.

In the District Court, before Judge Miller, the following civil cases were disposed of: Humphreys vs. Johnson, landlord and tenant, a warrant of removal was ordered. Pyle vs. Reed, in debt; judgment confirmed. Heister vs. Patterson, in debt, judgment for plaintiff, $47 10. Walker & Toplis vs. Wilson, in debt, judgment for plaintiff, $100. Bray vs. Neally, landlord and tenant, in debt; warrant ordered. Wilson vs. Powell, in debt; judgment for plaintiff, $58 18. Wilson vs. Elliott, in debt; judgment for plaintiff, $100. Cullen vs. McVey, in debt, judgment for plaintiff, $79. Wilson vs. Abels, in debt; judgment for plaintiff, $30 00. Griffin vs. H. Minger, in debt; judgment for plaintiff, $52 74. Wilson vs. Henry, in debt; judgment for plaintiff, $12 18. Leonard & Ellis vs. Garrison & Co., in debt, judgment for plaintiff, $70. Hampton vs. Lamb, landlord and tenant; warrant of removal ordered.

COUNTY JAIL.—Justice Soulers yesterday committed Hugh Reilly to the county jail for twenty days for drunken and disorderly conduct. Reilly has been indicted, and was out on bail on Saturday night, and his arrest was the cause of the disturbance in the Seventh Ward at the time Soulers was injured.

MILITARY FUNERAL.—Yesterday morning the body of Major Morris, who died in Nebraska and was brought to Camden, was conveyed to Moorestown under escort from the Sixth Regiment and also from Lodge No 15, A. F. A. M., where he was buried with ceremonies incident to those organizations.

TRIPPING FIRE.—Yesterday morning, about nine o'clock, the flooring around the boiler in Messrs. Scudder & Co's planing mill, at Front and Federal streets, Camden, was discovered to be in flames. By the prompt use of extinguishers the fire was subdued. The damage was trifling.

KNOCKED DOWN.—While on his way home on Saturday night, and when near Broadway and Ferry road, in the Eighth Ward, James Johnson, colored, was approached by a man who knocked him down, took his basket of marketing and escaped.

UNCONSCIOUS.—Last evening Dr Thomas F. Cullen, a prominent and highly esteemed physician of Camden, was lying in an unconscious condition, and was not expected to survive until this morning.

NIGHT SCHOOLS.—The night schools of Camden commenced last evening for the season with a good attendance. The artisan division was also well filled.

GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.—Last evening a deputation of Post No 3 G. A. R., of Philadelphia, paid a friendly visit to Post No. 5, of Camden.

BURGLARY.—The mill of L. D. Woodward, at Cookstown, was entered by burglars a few nights ago and a lot of flour and some money were carried away.

SENTENCED.—Judge Woodhull yesterday sentenced three persons to the penitentiary, one for one year and the other two for six months each.