

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

The Twentieth Century Outing Club will have its first outing to-day to Rancocas Creek.

The team of William Pallette, which was stolen Tuesday night, has been recovered.

The application of August Mengel for a county liquor license at Chesilhurst was withdrawn yesterday.

Lawyer George H. Pierce counsel for the Law and Order League, is recovering from a serious illness.

Herbert Hunter 8 years old, of 205 Mt. Vernon street, had his right leg severely injured yesterday by a heavy piece of timber falling on it.

The indictment against George W. Dietz, Manager of the local Western Union Telegraph Company, charging him with violating the lottery laws, was yesterday nolle prossed.

Otto Bishop and Mary Anderson committed to the county jail some time ago charged with being implicated in several robberies in the southern section of Camden county, were yesterday released on their own recognizances.

The Fuel Economizing Company filed articles of incorporation in the County Clerk's office yesterday with a capital of $250,000. The John Mundell Company, the object of which is to manufacture shoes, was also incorporated with a capital of $250,000.

Twenty-nine lots adjoining Butler's Cemetery on Ferry avenue were sold by the Sheriff yesterday on a foreclosure mortgage for $14,000, held by Jacob Butler and heirs of the late Dempsey Butler. The lots were bought in for $1000. It is said they will be converted into building lots.
