

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.—The United States Circuit Court was in session yesterday at the Government Building, Judge John T. Nixon presiding. In the case of Robert J. Douglas et al., v. Dempsey D. Butler, on bill, &c., final hearing, F. C. Lowther, Jr., was heard for the complainant. No one appeared for the defendant, and the Court took the papers and reserved decision. In the case of Margaret Ruckman, by her next friend, v. Edmund Stephens et al., &c., on bill, &c., final hearing, Jacob Weart was heard for the complainant, and R. Allen, Jr., for the defendant. The case was then continued until Tuesday morning next at half-past ten o'clock. In the case of Margaret Ruckman v. Eliza Ruckman et al., on bill, &c., final hearing, Jacob Weart was heard for the complainant, and the case was continued until Tuesday morning next. The Court then adjourned until this morning.