

BOROUGH OFFICIALS NAMED

Appointments Made for New Fiscal Year at Haddonfield

Special to The Inquirer.

HADDONFIELD, N. J., May 13.—The new fiscal year of the borough commissioners started tonight at the regular weekly meeting of the board, at which Mayor Joseph Lippincott presided. These were named borough officers for the coming year: Department of Public Affairs: Mayor Lippincott, director; borough clerk, Allen Clymer; borough solicitor, Henry S. Scovel; overseer of the poor, Charles L. Macready; recorder, Deane Presser.

Department of Public Safety: Mayor Lippincott, director; chief of police, Joseph W. Vanlier; chief of the Fire Department, Bayard C. Stavely; plumbing inspector, Alfred England; building inspector, ~~John S. Sisson~~, ~~George S. Sisson~~, ~~George S. Sisson~~, ~~George S. Sisson~~; sanitation and health inspector, Walter R. Smith.

Department of Revenue and Finance: Montreville Shinn, director; collector and treasurer, Charles E. Magill; assessor, William H. Harrison; collector of arrears, William H. Ludlow; clerk of Water Department, Howard W. Clement; clerk of Sewer Department, Allen Clymer.

Department of Streets and Public Property: H. Holloway, director; borough engineer, J. C. Remington, Jr.; engineer of water works, George H. Thompson.

Commissioners of the Sinking Fund: Deane Presser, S. S. Eldridge, Theodore Blaker. Library trustee, Miss Emma Middleton.