

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

 Accused of selling intoxicants to Howard Laumaster, 15 years old, Gennaro Totarella, a saloonkeeper, of Second street and Taylor avenue, was fined $50 and costs by the Recorder yesterday.

 The police were yesterday asked to locate 17-year-old Gertrude Garrett of 1171 Lawrence street, missing since Tuesday.

 For saving th life of a man several days ago, John Thompson, of 422 Vanhook street, has been presented with a medal by a number of friends in the Eighth ward.

 The annual ball of the First Italian Republican League was held last night at its headquarters, 813 South Fourth street. A number of leading political lights were present.

 Policeman T. Casper Hart, who was hurled from the patrol wagon last Saturday night in a collision with a trolley car, died in the Cooper Hospital at 7 o'clock last night. He was 62 years old and lived at 228 Mount Vernon street.

 The State Senate at Trenton confirmed the nomination of Frank B. Jess, of Camden, as president of the State Board for the Equalization of Taxes.
