

OVER IN CAMDEN

* President of City Councils Charles H. Ellis, Jr., 'is' suffering with symptoms of typhoid fever.

* George E. King, Gloucester City's defaulting treasurer, is said to have been located at Charlotte, N. C.

* After an illness of two weeks from the grip, Chief of Police Dodd was able to return to duty yesterday.

* Owing to Commissioner Beldon being engaged in the courts the investigation of the affairs of Camden county, which was to have been begun yesterday, has been again postponed until later in the week.

* Mrs. Mina Geist, whose place at Second and Arch streets, was raided Saturday night, pleaded guilty before Mayor Westcott yesterday of selling liquor without a license and paid a fine of $50 and costs.

* Persons opposed to the location of the Morgue in the county jail will be given an opportunity to ventilate their protests before the Special Committee of the Board of Freeholders at a meeting to be held this afternoon.

* The United Hebrew Republican Club has elected the following officers: President, J. E. Blank; vice-president, H. Oberfeld; secretary, Philip Auerbach. The club will be an independent organization in the future.