

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

 The Pennsylvania Securities Company was incorporated yesterday with a capital of $12,000.

 President William B. Knight, of the Second Ward Republican Club, gave the members a luncheon last night.

 Andrew Bratz, of 1445 North Thirteenth street, Philadelphia, fell from a brewery wagon yesterday and fractured a limb.

 Robert Pine, 62 years old, of 335 Berkeley street, Camden, was found dead in bed yesterday. Death was due to pneumonia.

 The body of Charles Dotson, who was killed by a train at Twenty-first street Monday night, was removed yesterday to his home in Paterson.

 The Camden Board of Health yesterday extended the time of the vaccine physicians two weeks, when it is expected that over 10,000 persons will have been vaccinated.

 Mrs. Sallie Hall Hatch, widow of Joseph Hatch and sister-in-law of ex-Mayor Cooper B. Hatch, died Monday night at her home, 317 Cooper street. She was for many years principal of the Broadway public school.

 The East Side Association for the Promotion of Holiness will hold a series of pentecostal services in the various evangelical churches commencing with to-morrow and continuing until the following Thursday.