

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

Arrested on a charge of driving an automobile without a license, Peter Sharley, aged 30 years, of 4112 Ridge avenue, Philadelphia, was freed by Recorder Stackhouse when he produced a Philadelphia driver's license. Under the reciprocity laws this is good in New Jersey for fifteen days.

Thrown from the rumble seat of a motorcycle on Haddon avenue, Edna Speaker, aged 23 years, of 835 Corinthian avenue, Philadelphia, sustained severe scalp lacerations. She was taken to Cooper Hospital.

Camden Lodge of Eagles last night conducted services over the remains of James F. Carey, a Pennsylvania Railroad engineer, who dropped dead while shaving on Wednesday night.

John W. Kelly, chief of the Electrical Bureau, was elected president of the International Association of Municipal Electricians at the annual convention in Watertown, N. Y., this week.

With W. T. Kelly, B. A. Gallagher and William B. MacDonald as incorporators, the American Dictograph Company filed articles of incorporation in the County Clerk's office yesterday with a capital of $100,000.

To steal a few dollars' worth of tobacco from the store of C. Limroth, 3 Haddon avenue, thieves broke a window valued at $100.

The National Office Appliance Company and the Pyne Point Printing and Paper Box Company took out charters at the office of the County Clerk yesterday.